Welcome to the AA

A warm welcome to the AA and thank you for choosing AA membership. The AA's breakdown service is available 24 hours a day 365 days a year. As the UK's largest motoring organisation, the AA deals with around 3.5 million breakdowns each year throughout the UK, Channel Islands and Isle of Man.

This booklet is split into 2 parts and sets out the Terms & Conditions of the contracts entered into when purchasing this AA membership:

- 1 – AA membership Breakdown Cover Policy; and
- 2 – AA membership Breakdown Cover Arrangement and Administration Contract

For the purposes of these contracts and correspondence with you, your "AA membership" refers to the above contracts collectively.

Please read this booklet carefully and keep it in a safe place as any use of your AA membership is subject to these Terms & Conditions.

Whilst most of the Terms & Conditions relating to AA membership Breakdown Cover apply to all Channel Islands & Isle of Man Members, there are some variations depending on the type of cover you have purchased. To understand which of the Terms & Conditions apply to your particular membership, please make sure you are aware of the type of cover you hold. Your type of cover will be detailed in the Membership Statement section of the letter accompanying these Terms and Conditions or will be advised to you in writing separately and will confirm if your membership is annual or continuous and the level of AA membership Breakdown Cover you hold (which determines the extent of services you receive).

If you are uncertain of this information then please call customer enquiries on 0343 316 4444 where one of our advisors will be able to help.

Separate Terms & Conditions apply for Members resident in the UK – to receive a copy please call 0343 316 4444.

AA membership Breakdown Cover can involve you contracting with two insurers for your AA membership Breakdown Cover: Roadside Assistance, At Home (Home Start) and National Recovery (Relay) are provided by Automobile Association Developments Limited (trading as AA Breakdown Services) and, Onward Travel (Stay Mobile) is underwritten by Acromas Insurance Company Limited.  - h. Trade transportation: that is the provision of service to any vehicles bearing trade plates or which the AA has reason to believe has just been imported or purchased at auction;
 - i. Transporting from trade premises: that is the transportation of immobilised vehicles where the AA considers this to be part of a commercial activity, for example, to, from or for motor dealers or delivery companies;
 - j. Locksmiths, tyre, glass or bodywork specialists costs: that is the cost (including any call out charge) of any locksmith, glass or tyre specialist, should the AA consider this to be required. The AA will endeavour to arrange this help on Your behalf, however it will not pay for these specialist services and any contract for services provided will be between You and the relevant specialist. If, in the AA's professional opinion, Your Vehicle requires recovery to such a specialist to be mobilised and, to effect that recovery, specialist lifting equipment not normally carried by AA mechanics is required, the AA will arrange the recovery but at Your cost. If use of a locksmith or other specialist would, in the AA's professional opinion, mobilise the vehicle, no further service will be available for the breakdown in question;

- k. Specialist lifting equipment: The cost of any specialist lifting equipment (not normally carried by the AA mechanics), if required following an accident;
- l. Transporting animals: that is the transportation or arrangement of the transportation of any animal (other than guide dogs or hearing dogs will be transported together with their owner, unless this is not possible for health and/or safety reasons). The AA will not recover horses or livestock. If the AA does, at it's absolute discretion, agree to transport any animal, then this will be at Your own risk. It is Your responsibility to secure any animal being transported or to make alternative arrangements for its transportation;
- m. Participating in sporting events: that is assistance for vehicles broken down as a result of taking part in any "Motor Sport Event", including but not limited to racing, rallying, trials or time-trials or auto test. However, for the avoidance of doubt, the AA does not consider "Concours d'elegance" events, track test days for road-legal vehicles or rallies held exclusively on open public highways where participants are required to comply with the normal rules of the road, to be Motor Sports Events;
- n. Malicious Damage or Vandalism: that is the recovery of any vehicle that cannot be driven due to deliberate destruction or damage (which includes the malicious removal of any vehicle part). A recovery can be arranged but this would be at Your expense or reclaimed via Your insurance company.
- o. Storage of your Vehicle: If your Vehicle has to be stored for any reason (including if you don't collect it when we ask you to), we can charge you reasonable storage fees. Vehicles (including contents) are stored at your own risk and we're not responsible for any loss or damage while the vehicle is stored.
- p. Locking Wheel Nut Key: if you do not have the locking wheel nut key for your vehicle, we may be unable to assist you, or may need to charge an additional fee to remove the locking wheel nuts. Please check your vehicle manual for more information on how to locate your locking wheel nut key.

Sale of Vehicle: If you don't pay pre-agreed fees or collect the Vehicle within 14 days of us asking you to, then we (or the garage) may sell or otherwise dispose of it (including any contents), but only if we give you at least 30 days' further written notice of our intention to do so. If we're entitled to sell or dispose of the Vehicle, then we may do so in whatever manner we consider to be reasonably practical. If the proceeds from the sale or disposal exceed what you owe us, we'll pay you the excess after deducting reasonable storage charges and sale/disposal costs. If the proceeds don't cover what you owe us, then you must pay us those outstanding amounts (including reasonable storage charges and sale/disposal costs).

2. Accident Recovery

- a. The AA may provide (but not pay for) recovery following an accident. If so, you will be responsible for paying the AA's charges for this assistance.
- b. Where a recovery is arranged, If specialist equipment is required, you will be responsible for paying the cost of any equipment used.
- c. You must give the AA, on request, any relevant information it reasonably requests in regard to all matters referred to in this clause.
- d. Please note that, following an accident, or otherwise, it is and remains Your responsibility to ensure that You properly comply with any requirements of Your motor insurer in making a claim under Your motor insurance policy.
- e. Where You do not request the services from us at the time of the incident and/or where You arrange for assistance and recovery services to be provided by another provider, we will make no contribution toward the cost of these (either to you or the provider).
- f. If following an accident, You require one of the Onward Travel (Stay Mobile) services (and You have Onward Travel (Stay Mobile)), the AA may, again, be prepared to arrange this for You but will not be responsible for any costs involved. You must pay, on request, any applicable charges. You must give the AA, on request, any relevant information it reasonably requests in regard to all matters referred to in this clause.

General rights to refuse service

Please note: if a Member is refused service by the AA the Member has the right to an explanation in writing (see “If you need to complain” page 6 for Customer Solutions contact details).

3. The AA reserves the right to refuse to provide or arrange assistance where the service request is or relates to:

- a. Repeat Breakdowns within 28 days: that is i.e. where service is requested to deal with the same or similar cause of breakdown (including running out of fuel or charge) to that which the AA attended within the preceding 28 days. It is Your responsibility to make sure that emergency repairs carried out by the AA are, where appropriate, followed as soon as possible by a permanent repair. The AA shall not be entitled to refuse assistance if the reason for the repeat breakdown is due to the negligence of the AA or its appointed agent.
- b. Unattended vehicles: that is where You are not with Your Vehicle at the time of the breakdown and You are unable to be present at the time that assistance arrives;
- c. Unsafe, unroadworthy, unlawful etc vehicles: that is where in the AA’s reasonable opinion, immediately before the relevant breakdown or accident, Your Vehicle was dangerous, overladen, unroadworthy or otherwise unlawful to use on a public road;

Without restricting the generality of the AA’s rights under this provision, and Your responsibility to comply with all applicable legal requirements, please note that for a UK registered vehicle to be used or kept on a public road, and subject to any relevant exemption that may apply, the vehicle must have a current excise licence (that is up to date vehicle tax), a current MOT test certificate and have in force valid motor insurance to the minimum level required under UK law;

- d. Assisting where unsafe or unlawful activities, that is where other than solely as a result of a failure on the part of the AA, the giving of service would involve any breach of the law (including, without in any way restricting the type of breach being referred to under this sub-clause, a breach of the AA’s health and safety duties which includes, for the avoidance of doubt, post production conversions from conventional fuel to electric, where We are unable to determine that it is safe to do so);
- e. Delay in reporting: that is where the breakdown is not reported within 24 hours of you becoming aware of the breakdown. (The AA may agree to extend this period in exceptional circumstances);
- f. We cannot verify membership: that is where You cannot produce a valid membership card (or appropriate receipt) and some other form of identification. If these cannot be produced, and AAIS unable to verify that the appropriate AA membership Breakdown Cover entitlement is held, AAIS reserves the right to refuse service;

However if You are unable to prove entitlement to service or You are aware that You do not hold entitlement to an AA service, the AA may, at its discretion, offer service on the immediate payment (by credit, debit or switch card) of the usual price of the relevant cover required, plus a supplementary premium for joining while already requiring assistance. The cost of this premium will be confirmed to you prior to the time of purchase;

The amounts paid will be fully refunded if it can be established that the relevant level of service entitlement was held at the time of the breakdown (For information, please see section 4 of the AA membership Breakdown Cover Arrangement and Administration Contract on page 28, for AAIS’s fees in the event of refund);

Any services provided under Onward Travel (Stay Mobile) must be paid for in advance by You and will be fully refunded if it can be established that entitlement to Onward Travel (Stay Mobile) was held at the time of the breakdown. No refunds will be given if service entitlement cannot be proved, or simply because Your Vehicle cannot be fixed at the roadside;

- g. Unreasonable behaviour: where the AA, on reasonable grounds considers that You:
- (i) or anyone who is accompanying You, or who is receiving or is entitled to receive assistance in connection with your AA membership Breakdown Cover, is behaving or has behaved in a threatening or abusive manner to AA employees, mechanics or agents, or to any third party contractor; or
 - (ii) have falsely represented that You are entitled to services that You are not entitled to; or
 - (iii) have assisted another person in accessing AA services to which they are not entitled; or
 - (iv) owe the AA money with respect to any services, spare parts or other matters provided by the AA or by a third party on the AA's instruction.
- h. The Recovery of Unaccompanied children: i.e. the recovery of any child under 16 years of age unless they are accompanied at all times by an adult (unconnected with the AA or its agents).

Additional services

4. Any additional services made available by the AA which are not described in these Terms & Conditions are provided on a purely discretionary basis and may be withdrawn at any time.

Use of agents

5. Service from dedicated AA mechanic is subject to availability and may be supplemented by use of appropriate agents. The AA will only accept responsibility for the actions of an agent where the agent is acting on the AA's instruction.

Requests for assistance

6. All requests for assistance must be made to the AA using the contact instructions provided by the AA from time to time. If You contact a garage direct, You will have to settle its bill and the AA will be under no obligation to reimburse You.

Emergency nature of breakdown service

7. AA mechanics are trained and equipped to carry out emergency roadside repairs and are not in a position to comment on the general safety or roadworthiness of a vehicle after a breakdown or an emergency repair. In addition whilst AA mechanics will exercise such care & skill as is reasonable in a roadside emergency situation, completion of an emergency repair cannot be taken to signify or in any way guarantee the general roadworthiness of the vehicle concerned.

Cancellation & suspension of AA membership Breakdown Cover

8. The Member has the right to cancel their AA membership Breakdown Cover within a 14 day 'cooling off period', commencing from the agreement of the contract (which is the renewal date for renewing Annual cover) or the receipt of the relevant membership documents, whichever happens later.

The following refund policy will apply for Members cancelling within the cooling off period:

- a) if the Member joined already requiring assistance, the Member will receive a full refund of the total AA membership Breakdown Cover premium paid for joining but additional charges for assistance provided which was already required at the time the Member joined will not be refunded and, if not already paid, may be deducted from any refund of AA membership Breakdown Cover premium.
- b) if the Member did not join already requiring assistance, the Member will receive a full refund of the AA membership Breakdown Cover premium for joining, less the cancellation fee that Automobile Association Services Limited charges. Please see section 4 of the AA membership Breakdown Cover Arrangement and Administration Contract on page 24, for information on AAIS's fees in the event of cancellation.

You must not, in any event, make further use of the cancelled AA membership Breakdown Cover.

9. Outside of any relevant cooling off periods (on joining or renewal) the following will apply:

a) for Members with Annual Cover:

there will be no refunds for cancellation except when cancellation is requested by or on behalf of a Member because the membership ceases to be of benefit to the Member for one of the following reasons:

- 1) death of the Member or, where the membership is joint or family, death of any other nominated person on the membership;
- 2) you are or the Member is permanently unable to drive due to illness or injury (where the membership is Joint or Family, this will also apply to any other nominated persons on the membership).

Any refund will be on a pro rata basis.

AAIS reserves the right to require the production of appropriate evidence to prove the reason for cancellation where a pro rata refund is claimed.

If a member does not meet the above criteria, but finds themselves temporarily not in need of their AA membership Breakdown Cover, the Member may be entitled to suspend your cover, in which case they should refer to the suspension information provided below.

b) for those with Continuous Cover:

Members paying monthly or quarterly can cancel their cover at any time by giving a minimum of 30 days notice. No refunds will be considered upon cancellation and cancellation will take effect at the next payment date following the end of the notice period. Please note: Continuous Members must contact us on 0343 316 4444 in order to cancel their AA membership Breakdown Cover. If the Member only cancels their Direct Debit, this will not cancel the continuous cover and we may arrange to collect the payment from the credit card or debit card supplied for the initial payment, in order to ensure the Member remains covered. We will advise the Member in writing prior to this. Unless otherwise notified by the Member, we will then continue to collect payment using this method, but we will advise the Member in writing that monthly payments will continue in this manner.

Once you have called us, cancellation will take effect at the next payment date following the end of the notice period. Please note that Continuous Members are entitled to change their level of AA membership Breakdown Cover at any time, however if the Member asks for a service to be removed from the cover held then this will take effect at the next payment date and no part refund of premium will be due.

10. Suspension:

For Members with Annual Cover, if during the course of the Cover Period your circumstances change so that You temporarily do not require AA membership Breakdown Cover, you may suspend Your membership (suspension is not available for Onward Travel (Stay Mobile) no more than once in each Cover Period, for a period of at least 90 days but for no more than 5 years, if:

- 1) the Member is living abroad, or
- 2) the Member has cover from another provider, or
- 3) the Member has access to AA Breakdown included with a new car purchase or
- 4) the Member is temporarily unable to drive due to illness or injury.

Suspension of Onward Travel (Stay Mobile) is not available. In the event that the Member requests, AAIS to suspend their AA membership any cover held for Roadside Assistance, At Home (Home Start) and National Recovery (Relay) will be suspended but your Onward Travel (Stay Mobile) cover will be cancelled. You will receive a pro rata refund of premium for the Onward Travel (Stay Mobile) cancellation.

AAIS reserves the right to require the production of appropriate evidence to prove the reason for suspension (and pro rata refund in respect of Onward Travel (Stay Mobile)).

Any unused period of Roadside Assistance, At Home (Home Start) and National Recovery (Relay) cover will commence at your reactivation date (the end of your nominated suspension period). There will be no refund in respect of unused Roadside Assistance, Home Start and Relay cover. Service cannot be used during the suspension period. The member must contact the AA if they wish to reactivate the cover early. If the Member reactivates the cover whilst already broken down, a charge may be payable, which will be confirmed to the Member at the time. When cover is reactivated, the terms and conditions in place at that time will apply, and they may have changed from the terms and conditions applying at the time of suspension.

11. The AA shall have the right to cancel Your AA membership Breakdown Cover, or choose not to accept a new application for AA membership Breakdown Cover for the same Member in the following circumstances:
 - a) the AA has been entitled to refuse service on more than one occasion under sub-clause 3c or sub-clause 3d or on one or more occasions under sub-clause 3g (see pages 16-17) since the membership first began; or
 - b) the AA considers, in its reasonable opinion, and as a result of the Member's conduct, that there has been a breakdown in its relationship with the Member; or
 - c) AA membership Breakdown Cover was taken out where the AA was, or is, entitled to cancel an existing or previous cover under sub-clause a), b), e) and f) of this clause; or d) The member has taken out another AA membership Breakdown Cover policy in the 6 month period prior to applying for the current AA membership Breakdown Cover;
 - d) the member has taken out another AA membership Breakdown Cover policy in the 6 month period prior to applying for the current AA membership Breakdown Cover;

 - f) You or any other person accompanying You behave inappropriately to any representative of the AA by acting in an abusive manner via any communication medium or;
 - g) if the AA has in the previous 6 months chosen not to renew or has cancelled another AA membership Breakdown Cover policy taken out by the Member

If the AA decides to cancel Your AA membership Breakdown Cover under this clause 11 that membership will be cancelled with effect from the Member's receipt of the AA's written notification of cancellation. Notification will be deemed to have been received by the Member two days from the date of the AA's letter of cancellation, if the AA writes to you, or immediately if the AA notifies the Member electronically. Where the Member concerned has Annual cover, the AA shall give a pro rata refund (calculated on a daily basis) of the premium based on the unexpired cover at cancellation. For those with continuous cover, no refund of premium will be due to Members on monthly premiums. A pro rata refund of the quarterly premium based on the unexpired cover at cancellation will be due.

12. The AA shall also have the right to cancel a Continuous Cover Contract:
 - a) immediately if any premium or other related charge is overdue; or
 - b) at any time by giving at least 45 days expiring at the end of any membership Year to those Members paying monthly or quarterly: cancellation will take effect at the next payment date following the end of this notice period and no refund of premium will be due to Members on monthly continuous cover, however for those on quarterly continuous cover contracts a partial refund of unused premium may be due if cover is cancelled by the AA prior to the next repayment date.

Changes to your Recurring Payment Authority

13. If the Member pays under recurring payment authority and the Member's account and/or card details change, we will approach the Member's card provider/bank for, or receive from the Member's card provider/bank, updated details to help continue to provide the services requested. If the Member has agreed to pay for AA membership Breakdown Cover by continuous monthly premiums and a premium is overdue or missed, we may arrange to collect the payment from the credit card or debit card supplied for the initial payment, in order to ensure the Member remains covered. We will advise the Member in writing prior to this. Unless otherwise notified by the Member, we will then continue to collect payment using this method, but we will advise the Member in writing that monthly payments will continue in this manner.

Renewal and Review

14. The AA reserves the right and is entitled not to renew Annual cover or change Your premium or offer a different product:
- (a) Annual Cover

If AA membership Breakdown Cover is annual, we will write to the Member, giving at least 2 weeks notice, to confirm whether the membership will be renewed and will provide details of any changes to the premium and the Terms and Conditions applicable to the membership for the next Cover Period. If the membership is due for renewal and is paid for under an existing Direct Debit or Continuous Credit Card authority, then unless we hear to the contrary or we have given You notice of non-renewal, Your AA membership Breakdown Cover will be automatically renewed at the end of each Cover Period that such authority remains in place. If a Member does not want to renew on this basis, they should notify the AA before the renewal date. (Where notification not to renew is received near to the renewal date e.g. within 7 days, it may not be possible to prevent payment under a Direct Debit or Continuous Credit Card authority from being collected although this will be repaid if cover has not been renewed). For information, this should be done by contacting AAIS on 0330 053 0475, see section 3 of the AA membership Breakdown Cover Arrangement and Administration Contract on page 23. Please note that Continuous Cover does not renew: see clause 14 b) below.
 - (b) Continuous Cover

Provided the applicable premium has been paid, a Continuous membership will continue until it is cancelled by the Member in accordance with the provisions set out in clause 9b, or by Us in accordance with the provisions set out in clauses 11 or 12 on page 19. However, we may review the premium and other Terms and Conditions of a continuous membership in accordance with clause 15 below.
 - (c) Business Use

If You hold Vehicle membership in relation to a vehicle which is used as a taxi or any vehicle used to carry goods for reward including haulage, the provision of courier services, or parcel delivery, then without prejudice to the generality of clause 14 above we reserve the right to review Your membership and to cancel your AA membership Breakdown Cover by providing written notice of at least 45 days and to offer an alternative policy more suited to Your needs.

Changes to Terms & Conditions

15. a) Annual cover: The AA is entitled to change any of the Terms & Conditions at renewal. The AA also reserves the right to make changes to these Terms & Conditions during the Cover Period, on the giving of at least two weeks notice, where this is necessary in order to comply with any applicable laws, regulations or the advice or instruction of any regulatory authority.
- b) Continuous cover: the AA is entitled to make changes to any of these Terms & Conditions (and to the premium payable) at any time during the Cover Period, but will always give You at least 45 days prior notice of any such change(s) In the event that within 15 days of such notice You cancel Your AA membership Breakdown Cover, You will be entitled to a pro-rata refund for any unused period of Cover for which a premium has been paid.

Changes to your Personal Details

17. While the AA seeks to meet the service needs of Members at all times, its resources are finite and this may not always be possible. The AA shall not be liable for service failures where the AA is faced with circumstances outside its reasonable control. Events which might constitute circumstances outside the AA's reasonable control include (but are not limited to) Acts of God, outbreak of hostilities, riot, civil disturbance, acts of terrorism, acts of government or authority (including the refusal or revocation of any licence or consent), fire, subsidence, explosion, flood, snow, fog or other bad weather conditions, roads that are not reasonably accessible to the AA, vehicle, equipment or systems failures, shortages of fuel or other necessary supplies, failure of telecommunications lines or systems, default of suppliers or sub-contractors, theft, malicious damage, strike, lock out or industrial action of any kind.

Exclusion of liability for loss of profit etc

18. The AA shall not, in any event, and to the extent permitted by law, have any responsibility for
- a) any increased costs or expenses; or
 - b) any loss of
 - (i) profit; or
 - (ii) business; or
 - (iii) contracts; or
 - (iv) revenue; or
 - (v) anticipated savings; or
 - c) for any special or indirect losses incurred as a result of or in connection with any service, whether resulting from tort (including negligence or breach of statutory duty), from breach of contract or otherwise. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this clause or these Terms & Conditions shall exclude or restrict the AA's liability for negligence resulting in death or personal injury.

Enforcement of Terms & Conditions

19. Failure to enforce or non-reliance on any of these Terms & Conditions by the AA will not prevent the AA from subsequently relying on or enforcing them.
20. None of the Terms & Conditions, or benefits, of AA membership Breakdown Cover are enforceable by anyone else other than the Member. For the avoidance of doubt, and without limiting the above, any rights under The Contract (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999, or any replacement or amendment of such act, are excluded.

- made a fraudulent or false application.
- misrepresented any answers to Our questions or withheld any relevant information in order to influence the AA.
- provided false or invalid documents in support application; or
- following an allegation or suggestion of fraud by the AA, or any other 3rd Part Business partner, withdrawn an application, had an application refused or declined or had a policy cancelled or made void.

We may:

- treat Your policy as if it never existed from the date of the fraud or misrepresentation and retain any premium You have paid for this policy.
- serve You a 7 day notice of cancellation on all other policies that You hold with Us; and
- pass details to the Police and fraud prevention agencies; or
- Refuse to honour your application if any way fraudulent, false or exaggerated and recover from You any costs that have been incurred.

Part 2. AA membership Breakdown Cover Arrangement and Administration Contract – Your contract with AAIS

AA membership Breakdown Cover Arrangement and Administration Contract - Your Contract with AAIS

Set out below are the Terms and Conditions of your contract with Automobile Association Insurance Services Limited (“AAIS”) relating to AAIS’s arrangement and administration of your AA membership Breakdown Cover.

The minimum duration of your arrangement and administration contract with AAIS is the duration of your AA membership Breakdown Cover, and your contract with AAIS will terminate simultaneously with the termination of the related AA membership Breakdown Cover (whatever the reason for such termination).

1. Who regulates AAIS?

AAIS is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority. The Financial Conduct Authority are an independent body that regulates the financial services industry in the UK. AAIS’s permitted business is that of an insurance intermediary dealing in and arranging contracts of general insurance. You can check this information on the Financial Conduct Authority’s register by visiting their website www.fca.org.uk The registration number is 310562.

2. Which companies does AAIS deal with?

AAIS deals with Automobile Association Developments Limited (trading as AA Breakdown Services) which underwrites Roadside Assistance, At Home (Home Start) and National Recovery (Relay), Acromas Insurance Company Limited which underwrites Onward Travel (Stay Mobile). AAIS acts as an agent of these underwriters, when accepting or refunding premiums and when handling any claim monies. These are the only underwriters of breakdown assistance available through AAIS. AAIS may renew your cover to a different underwriter or notify you of a future change if the underwriter of AA products has changed for new policies for any reason.

Please note that some sales are not arranged through AAIS and if this applies to your cover, you will be issued with a separate document identifying the company which arranged your cover, and giving the required information about that company.

3. What services does AAIS provide?

AAIS provides the following services to you:

- Providing information about breakdown cover on offer: AAIS will provide you with information on the breakdown cover available from the insurer(s) under AA membership Breakdown Cover and will ask you some questions to help narrow down the level and type of that breakdown cover of interest to you. You will not receive advice or any recommendation on which level or type of breakdown cover to buy and you will need to make your own choice on which level and type of breakdown cover you require.
- Arranging breakdown cover. Once you decide what cover you require, AAIS will arrange this for you with the insurer(s), dealing with payment and issuing the relevant membership documentation and card(s).
- Administering breakdown cover: After arranging breakdown cover AAIS will administer it on your behalf, including supplying replacement membership documentation and card(s), keeping your membership records up to date, dealing with enquiries; changes to payment methods, renewals (including Autorenewal) of Cover and cancellations (including refunds of premium on behalf of the insurer(s)). If the Member has agreed to pay for Cover by continuous monthly premiums and a premium is overdue or missed, AAIS may arrange to collect the payment from the credit card or debit card supplied for the initial payment, in order to ensure the Member remains covered. We will advise the Member in writing before doing this. Unless otherwise notified by the Member, we will then continue to collect payment using this method, but will advise the Member in writing that we are doing this.
- Making changes to breakdown cover: If during your membership you wish to change the type or level of cover AAIS will provide you with information to help you make your choice and will arrange any changes with the insurer(s), including dealing with any additional payments and issue any relevant membership documentation and card(s).
- If, during the currency of your AA membership, the relevant insurer wishes to alter the Terms & Conditions of AA membership Breakdown Cover, AAIS will provide you with the relevant information. AAIS will, for compliance purposes, keep a copy of the policy that was issued to you. Communication by AAIS concerning any policy issued will be in English.

AAIS act for the insurer(s) in marketing their insurance products: AAIS is authorised to act for the insurer when entering into a contract of insurance with you on their behalf. AAIS may receive and retain commission from the insurer in respect of any insurance that you take out through it. AAIS handles Onward Travel (Stay Mobile) claims on behalf of Acromas Insurance Company. Acromas Insurance Company calculates the profit made on Onward Travel (Stay Mobile). If Acromas Insurance Company achieves a level of profit above an agreed amount they pay AAIS a percentage commission of the total premium. The percentage is adjusted periodically, up or down, so that Acromas Insurance Company achieves the agreed level of profit.

4. What will you have to pay for services provided by AAIS?

AAIS will always inform you of, or confirm in writing its fees for the services it provides under this contract. These fees and when they are payable, will be advised in the contract, in the accompanying letter or separately in writing. AAIS's fees will be identified separately from the AA membership Breakdown Cover premium.

AAIS will normally charge an arrangement and administration fee in relation to the services it provides. You will be advised, in advance, if this fee will apply and the amount payable.

Subject to statutory rights you may have as a consumer, AAIS will not refund any of its fees except:

- a) If you cancel in the circumstances set out in Clause 3f on page 16
- b) If you cancel in the circumstances set out in Clause 8a on page 17
- c) If you cancel in circumstances set out in clause 8b on page 21 AAIS will refund its fees but may charge a cancellation fee of £20

AAIS will also tell you about any other charges relating to Your AA membership including that AAIS may charge you a fee for a replacement card and for written notification of VAT status.

AAIS has authorised Automobile Association Developments Limited (AADL) to act as its agent for the purposes of receiving any amounts due under your contract with AAIS. Payments will be taken using the payment method provided when purchasing your AA membership Breakdown Cover.

If you are due a refund of premium following cancellation or another transaction, AAIS will be entitled to deduct any fee, charges or other sums you owe in respect of your AA membership before making any such refund.

5. Changes to Terms & Conditions

Annual cover: AAIS is entitled to change any of these Terms and Conditions at renewal. AAIS also reserves the right to make changes to these Terms & Conditions during the Cover Period, on the giving of at least two weeks notice, where this is necessary in order to comply with any applicable laws, regulations or the advice or instruction of any regulatory authority.

Continuous Cover: AAIS is entitled to make changes to any of these Terms & Conditions (and to the fees payable) during a Continuous Cover contract, but will always give Members paying monthly or quarterly at least 45 days prior notice of any such change(s).

6. Matters outside AAIS's reasonable control

AAIS shall not be liable for service failures where it is faced with circumstances outside its reasonable control. Events which might constitute circumstances outside AAIS's reasonable control include (but are not limited to) Acts of God, outbreak of hostilities, riot, civil disturbance, acts of terrorism, acts of government or authority (including the refusal or revocation of any licence or consent), fire, subsidence, explosion, flood, snow, fog or other bad weather conditions, vehicle, roads that are not reasonably accessible by the AA, equipment or systems failures, shortages of fuel or other necessary supplies, failure of telecommunications lines or systems, default or suppliers or sub-contractors, theft, malicious damage, strike, lock out or industrial action of any kind.

AAIS shall not, in any event, and to the extent permitted by law, have any responsibility for

- a) any increased costs or expenses; or
- b) any loss of
 - (i) profit; or
 - (ii) business; or
 - (iii) contracts; or
 - (iv) revenue; or
 - (v) anticipated savings; or
- c) for any special or indirect losses incurred as a result of or in connection with any service, whether resulting from tort (including negligence or breach of statutory duty), from breach of contract or otherwise.

For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this clause or these Terms & Conditions shall exclude or restrict the AAIS's liability for negligence resulting in death or personal injury.

8. Third parties

None of the Terms and Conditions, or benefits, of this Contract are enforceable by anyone else other than the Member. Withdrawing your consent

Where we rely on your consent, you can withdraw it at any time by using the contact details in the Contact Us section below.

Transfers outside of the UK and Europe

Your personal information may be transferred outside the European Economic Area, for example to service providers. If we do so, we'll make sure that suitable safeguards are in place where required, for example by using approved contractual agreements or other legal arrangements unless certain exceptions apply.

Sharing with credit reference and fraud prevention agencies

If you apply for credit, to process your application we may perform credit, risk and identity checks on you with one or more Credit Reference Agencies (CRAs) and Fraud Prevention Agencies (FPAs). When you take out a Roadside policy or product from us we may also make periodic searches at CRAs to manage your account with us. To do this, we and our underwriters supply your personal information to CRAs and FPAs, and they will give us information about you. This will include information about your financial situation and financial history. CRAs and FPAs will supply to us both public (including the electoral register) and shared credit, financial situation, insurance and financial history information and fraud prevention information.

If you have credit, we may continue to exchange information about you with CRAs and FPAs while you have a relationship with us, and if necessary afterwards. We may also notify the CRAs about your settled accounts. The identities of the CRAs and FPAs, their role as fraud prevention agencies, the data they hold, the ways in which they use and share personal information, data retention periods and your data protection rights with the CRAs are explained in more detail on our website. When CRAs receive a search from us they will place a search footprint on your credit file that may be seen by other lenders.

If you're making a joint application or tell us that you have a spouse or financial associate, we may link your records together, so you should make sure you discuss this with them, and share with them this information, before lodging the application. CRAs will also link your records together and these links will remain on your and their files until such time as you or your partner successfully files for a disassociation with the CRAs to break that link.

We may also use FPAs such as Experian and commercially available fraud prevention services and claims services to prevent, detect and investigation potential fraud. We may share information with FPAs about your application and policies in order to help us do this. This information may be given to other organisations. More information can be found on our website at www.theaa.com/privacy-notice.

Changes to your data

You should tell us so that we can update our records. The contact details for this purpose are in your policy documents. We'll then update your records if we can.

Monitoring communications

We may monitor communications with you, where permitted by law. We do this for quality control and staff training purposes, to comply with regulatory rules, to prevent or detect crime, to protect the security of our communications, data, and systems, and to enforce compliance with our internal policies.

Use of automated decisions

We sometimes make decisions about you using only technology, where none of our employees or any other individuals have been involved. We do this to decide whether to offer you a product or service, to determine the risk of doing so, the price we will offer, whether to offer you credit, what terms and condition to offer you, assess lending, insurance and business risks, or to assess what payment methods we can offer you. We may do this using data from other parts of the AA (AA group and AA branded companies) and policy underwriters, including product or services details (including usage of claims made) and telematics data captured including on your vehicle, driving behaviour and location information.

To understand the logic involved in this and why we do this, you may wish to consider the following example:

- Assess your credit worthiness and ability - for example, if you are applying for credit and have a history of late or non-payment of debts, we may not be able to offer you credit or do so at a higher rate.
- Assess our ability to offer our products and services and manage those accounts – for example, we will take account of your history of using your policy or policies. If you or your beneficiaries make claims or have calls out or, or if we have concerns about potential use of a policy (for example, if you are in breach of the conditions) or circumstances this may result in a higher risk being assigned to you, meaning you may be quoted a higher price or a policy being declined or cancelled.
- Assess the risk of fraud - if we believe there is a significant risk of fraud, based on the information we hold or that is available to us, we may decline your application, quote a higher price or decline or cancel your policy or application.

We do this because it is necessary for entering into or performing the relevant insurance or credit agreement with you. We may do so if it is authorised by law or is based on your explicit consent.

Retention of your personal data

Unless we explain otherwise to you, we'll hold your personal information based on the following criteria:

- For as long as we provide products or services to you and then for as long as someone could bring a claim against us;
- To comply with legal and regulatory requirements or guidance; or
- For as long as we have reasonable business needs.

Your data protection rights

Here is a list of the rights that all individuals have under UK data protection laws. They don't apply in all circumstances so your request may not always be granted. If you wish to use any of them, we'll explain at that time if they apply or not, and if we will comply or not with your request, including the reasons why.
